McPHERSON LIBRARY

The first volume in a continuing series on Canadian creative and performing artists compiled by the University of Victoria library has been received from the publishers. The volume, the first in the series Creative Canada: A Biographical Dictionary of Twentieth Century Creative and Performing Artists, was made possible by a $10,000.00 Canada Council grant to the library.

The series is being prepared by the library's reference division under Mrs. H. M. Rodney with the co-operation of the University of Victoria Librarian Dean Halliwell and major libraries across the country. It is printed by the University of Toronto Press.

Each volume will be a cross-section of artists who have achieved local, national or international notice through their works. The second volume is expected to be ready this summer with succeeding volumes published on an annual or biennial basis.

FACULTY WOMEN'S CLUB

The Faculty Women's Club is holding a coffee party for Mrs. Bruce Partridge at the home of Mrs. Dennis Davis on Saturday, January 22nd.
Invitations have been sent to the members.

FOUR AT THE PHOENIX

The Four at the Phoenix weekends will start January 21, 22 and 23 with Samuel Beckett's "Krapp's Last Tape". The one-character play will be performed by theatre faculty member John Krich.

The second weekend, January 28, 29 and 30 will include two student-directed one-act plays about love: Brian Friel's "Winners" and Garcia Lorca's "The Love of Don Perlimplin and Belisa in the Garden".

"The Man Who Feared Burglars", a black comedy by University of Victoria English Professor, Frederick Mayne, will be presented February 4, 5 and 6. Also to be shown is Charles L. Mee's
"Constantinople Smith".

On the final weekend, February 11, 12 and 13, Carl Hare, theatre faculty member, will direct Dylan Thomas' "Under Milk Wood", a third-year acting class project.

Tickets go on sale on a non-reserved seat basis January 17 at 50¢ per person.

COMPANY I

Carl Hare, Artistic Director, Company I, reports that the company has received a $30,760.00 grant from the Manpower and Immigration Canada Works Incentives Program. For information about Company I and its activities (the company performs materials for schools, churches, recreational and other groups), contact Professor Hare at the Theatre Department.

PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Dr. Richard May of the Department of Psychology has just been awarded a Canada Council grant in the amount of $7,400.00. This is a Leave Fellowship which acts for a salary supplement for his sabbatical leave together with a research allowance for work he will be pursuing with Dr. Corinne Hutt at Park Hospital, Oxford, England. Dr. May will be located at the University of Reading in England during his sabbatical leave.

Dr. Otfried Spreen, Professor and Chairman of the Psychology Department has just been awarded a Medical Research Council grant of $34,200.00 for the year 1972/73 to pursue his research on "Psycholinguistic Evaluation of Aphasic Language". Dr. Spreen is a former Secretary of the Academy of Aphasia and has gained international recognition for his work in this area.

In addition Dr. Spreen has also been awarded a Canada Council Research Grant of $4,850.00 for his research on the "Predictive Validity of Pre-school Tests for the Detection of Learning Problems".

PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT

A paper "On Bringing Mrs. Foot Out of Controversy: A Tribute to D. Nolan Kaiser", by Dr. K. W. Rankin of the Department of Philosophy, has recently appeared in Mind. Dr. Rankin has also been appointed to the Editorial Board of Rossegna Internazionale Di Logica, publishers of the International Logic Review.

Dr. Charles Daniels of the Department of Philosophy and Samuel Todes, of Northwestern University are the co-authors of a paper "Beyond the Doubt of a Shadow: a Phenomenological and Linguistic Analysis of Shadows", which was read, by Dr. Todes, to the Society for Phenomenological and Existential Philosophy, in New Orleans.

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Michael Hadley and Dr. Rosemary Picozzi (German) have been appointed as Lecture Tour Committee for the Western Provinces of the Canadian Association of University Teachers of German.

The Medical Research Council has awarded Dr. M.
J. Ashwood-Smith of the Department of Biology a grant of $11,200.00 to continue with his studies on the preservation of cells and tissues at low temperature. This award follows grants from the Medical Research Council to Dr.
Ashwood-Smith that have totalled $45,000.00 during the past two years for research in low temperature biology as applied to medicine.
Dr. Ashwood-Smith was formerly Chairman of the Society for Low Temperature Biology in Great Britain before joining the staff at the University of Victoria two and a half years ago as Associate Professor.

Dr. J. P. Vinay, Head, Department of Linguistics, took part in an International Symposium on Bilingualism held in Paris month. The conference was organized by the Canadian government, under the auspices of UNESCO, and was attended by representatives of ten nations with bilingual problems - from Europe, Africa, India and the U.S.A. The Canadian delegation comprised government officials from various departments and delegates from four universities. Dr. Vinay presented a paper on second language teaching and its significance for bilingualism in Canada. He was accompanied by his graduate research assistant, Mr. Murray Wilton, who acted as secretary for the conference.
The two University of Victoria representatives are now working on a report to be presented to the government later this year.

DOCTORATE RECEIVED

Max Power, Department of Political Science, has been informed by Yale University that he has been awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Dr. Power, who joined the University of Victoria faculty in the fall of 1969, submitted his thesis to the Yale faculty of graduate studies in July, 1971.

The subject of his thesis was "A Theoretical Analysis of the Electoral College System and Proposed Reforms".

Dr. Power holds a B.A. from Colorado College; a B.A. from Oxford; and a M. Phil from Yale.
